Our annual visit to Eglwys Nunnydd was on a cold overcast day, an easterly wind was blowing and although we were told that fish had been rising everywhere for buzzers at 7.0am by 10.0am rising fish were few and far between. But it was dry all day inspite of the rain forecast.

Fifteen members fished, 9 on the worm and 6 flyfishing, only 13 fish were caught, the wormers accounting for 9 of these.

The quality of the fish caught was excellent and everyone enjoyed a good natured day out, John Brimfield was given the bottle of chardonay he drew at the Tyn-y-Graig venue.
