The visit to Tyn-y-Graig was the last venue for Tawe Disabled Fishers this season. The day was sunny and warm with a stiffish breeze blowing which put a wave on the water. Few fish were rising and the use of a intermediate line was the order of the day.

The fishing was excellent and everybody caught fish, 49 fish were caught and 15 TDF members fished. The best bag was caught by Bill Grey, our retired Secretary and weighed in at 15 lbs, runner up was Paul Layton with 14 lbs and they will be getting the prize bottles kindly donated by the fishery owner, Dave Williams.

A highly successful day out was enjoyed by everyone.
